“I _____ consent and authorize the Stanley G. Tate Florida Prepaid College Foundation, Inc. to publicly release information about me, my college attendance and education, and my participation in Project STARS and to use such information in the Foundation’s annual report or in newsletters published by the Foundation or the Florida Prepaid College Board. I waive any right under s. 1009.98(3), Florida Statutes, to use the benefits of my Florida Prepaid College Plan scholarship at any eligible educational institution that is not a publicly owned college, university or vocational education institution located in the State of Florida and authorize the donor of my scholarship to be the sole entity authorized to approve any transfer of the benefits of my scholarship for use by me at any privately owned or operated eligible educational institution located in the State of Florida or at any eligible educational institution located outside of the State of Florida.”

“I _____ affirm that I have remained drug free and crime free since being designated a recipient of a Stanley Tate Project STARS scholarship. I will continue to remain drug free and crime free while utilizing the benefits of my scholarship. “Drug Free” means not being convicted of, or adjudicated delinquent for, any violation of chapter 893. “Crime Free” means not being convicted of, or adjudicated delinquent for, any felony or first degree misdemeanor as defined in Florida statutes 775.08 and 775.081.

“I _____ also have been informed and understand that while my scholarship is in an active status, the Florida Prepaid College Foundation must receive a fully executed Annual Student Information form from me annually, by the beginning of the fall semester. Failure to comply may result in non-payment of my fall invoice, and/or my scholarship being revoked, and/or denial of college graduation.”
